ALBION SC

Founded in 1981, and recently named the Top-Ranking Club in America, Albion SC is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, dedicated to the promotion of competitive and recreational youth soccer. With over 3,000 players participating in Albion SC or our affiliates, comprising ages ranging from U4 to U19, Albion SC is one of the largest competitive youth soccer Clubs in the nation. Beyond teaching the skills required to develop players to excel at the game of soccer, Albion SC takes pride in instilling off the field skills such as leadership, teamwork, self-confidence, and community involvement as well. Additionally, our players excel academically, with the Club achieving the distinction of being the highest recruited club by the Ivy League.

Your generous support and sponsorship is crucial to the Club's ongoing operational functions, and directly assists with team needs, financial assistance and scholarship. All levels of support are much appreciated, and we believe we have sponsorship packages that will meet your budget. All contributions through the Club are tax deductible (#33-0640425). Through our sponsorship packages, the Club can help support you and your business as well, by utilizing our large member base to help publicize your business.

Please review the different packages set forth herein, and select the one that best meets your giving need. Your contribution will help our players beyond the pitch and will make a difference within the community. On behalf of Albion SC, our players, and families, we thank you for reaching out and extending your generosity.

Sincerely,

The Board of Directors
